DEDICATION

HELEN O. CROCKETT

For your sincere concern for the individual student, for your bright humor, sound class guidance and inspired teaching, there are no adequate words to express our appreciation. As a token of our gratitude, we, the class of 1964, dedicate The Northern Light to you, Mrs. Crockett.

EDITORS

DIANE BELLAVANCE

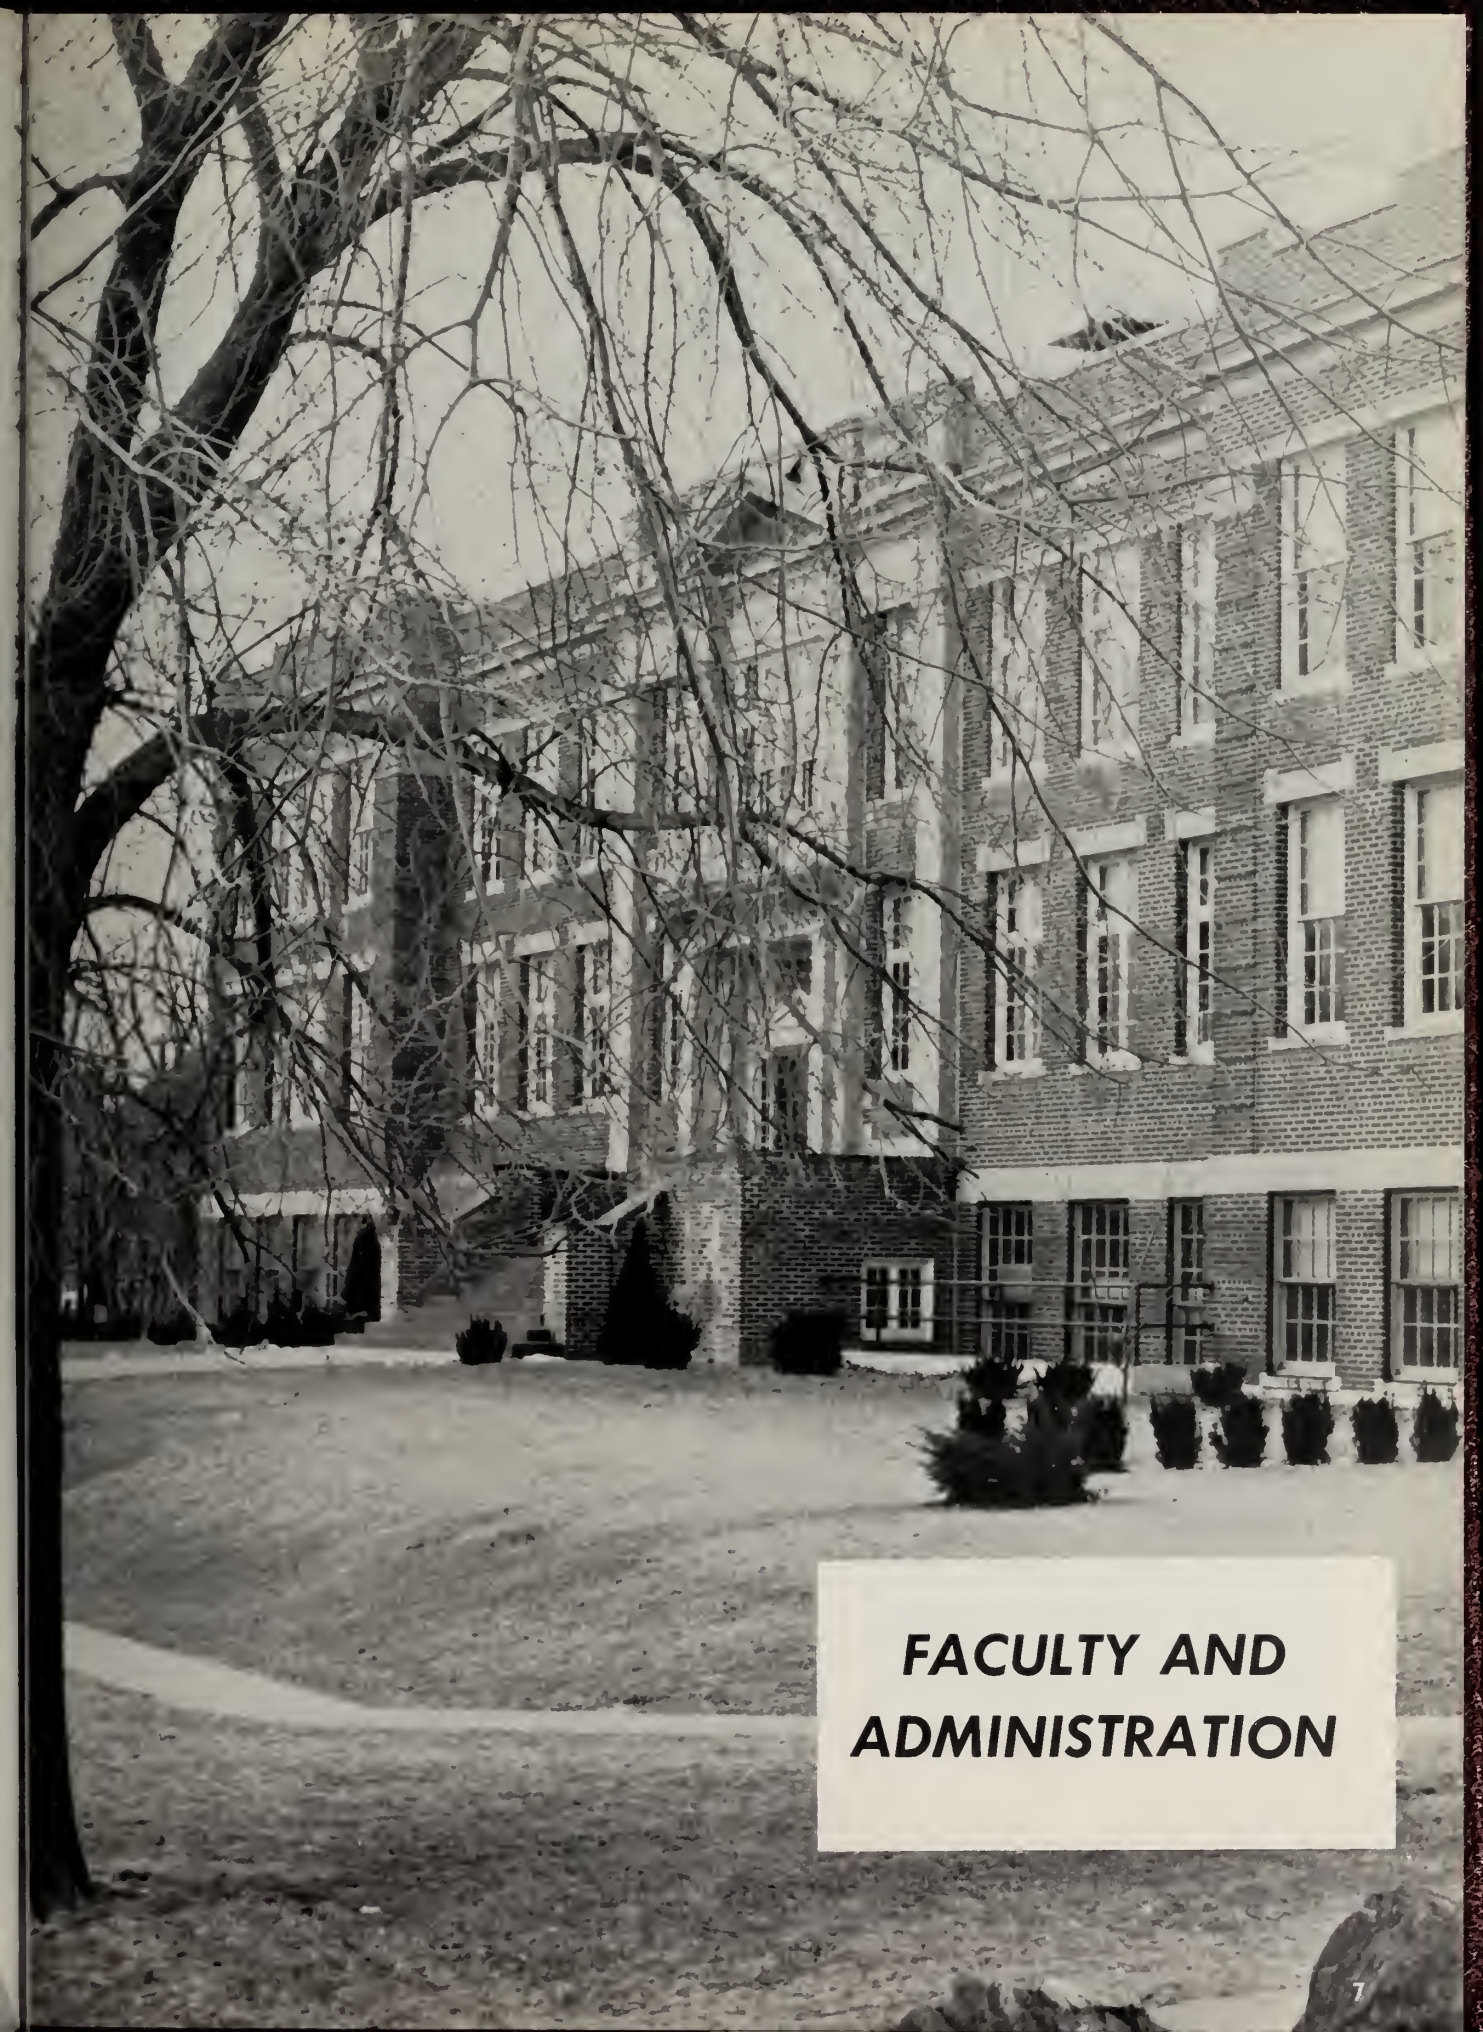

JAMES HOWARD

We are proud to present the 1964 Northern Light. This yearbook is a permanent record of the important landmarks of your high school days. We hope that this annual will perpetuate fond memories of North High.

Thank you for your support.

"LANDMARKS"

A landmark is defined both as a guide and also as an important event in one's life. Your graduation from high school is a landmark in the process of your education—a process that will continue throughout your lifetime.

For some of you, these high school years have been preparation for higher education of one form or another. For others—it represents the completion of your formal schooling. In either event, it is but a guide post, and your education—whether formal or informal—will continue. Democracy requires the highest degree of civic competence of its citizens. The more difficult the problems, the greater the need for a capable and intelligent citizenry.

You need to strive to become a contributing part of America's future—the most promising era in the history of mankind. To do so you must be prepared to exercise a more profound intelligence than any generation in history. The possibilities of equipping yourself for this inheritance are before you.

"LANDMARKS IN ONE'S LIFE"

I associate landmarks with landfalls and immediately a comparison comes to my mind relative to the difficult landfalls made in the early days of the sailing vessel as compared to the modern landfalls that are being made every day from the sea and from the air through the miracle of radar. Other wonderful improvements are in the offing.

Keep the landmarks and landfalls of your life up-to-date. Know what is going on in the world and settle for nothing but the best available to you.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Sested: Mrs. Lucia Johnson. Back row: James E. Munroe, Dr. D. Eugene Leco, Walter F. Cavanagh, Bernard J. Doyle, Jr., Robert H. Rickard.

The members of the school committee have earned the respect and profound gratitude of each member in the class of 1964. Their unselfish endeavors have contributed greatly to the cause of our education at N.A.H.S.

For every phase of assistance they so willingly provided, we can only extend our sincere thanks and deep appreciation.

GUIDANCE

ROBERT W. PRENDERGAST
Guidance Director

LYDIA R. SNYDER
Guidance Counselor

For their able assistance and guidance at an indecisive and bewildering time of our lives, we thank Mr. Prendergast and Mrs. Snyder.

For their patience, their consideration, and for their numerous and helpful suggestions, we are truly grateful.

CLASS ODE

Words and Music by: PAULA MACDUFF

As we stand together on this graduation eve,
joined together one last time before we take our leave.

We think back on our years at North—we thank the Lord that we could freely think, and learn. Oh, priceless opportunity!

The hours spent with teachers on whom we do depend until this hour.
Now to them a farewell we extend.

And all the many joys from the friendships we have made make strong and true the bond we feel—the thoughts that dare not fade.

As we stand together on this graduation eve,
joined together one last time before we take our leave.

We think back on our years at North—we thank the Lord that we could freely think and learn. Oh, priceless opportunity!

Handwritten musical notation on ten staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines, arranged in a structured manner typical of a musical score. The handwriting is in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation continues across ten staves, with some staves featuring multiple measures of music. The overall appearance is that of a handwritten musical manuscript.

CLASS ODE

Words and Music by PAULA MacDUFF

As we stand together on this graduation eve,
Joined together one last time before we take our leave, we Think back on our years at North—we thank the Lord that we could Freely think and learn, oh, priceless opportunity!

The hours spent with teachers, on whom we do depend Until this hour, now to them a farewell we extend. And All the many joys from the friendships we have made, make
Strong and true the bond we feel—the thoughts that dare not fade.

As we stand together on this graduation eve,
Joined together one last time before we take our leave, we Think back on our years at North—we thank the Lord that we could Freely think and learn, oh, priceless opportunity!

CLASS HISTORY

1964

By DONNA GRANT and PAUL DANESI

As we assemble here today, the thought that we are coming to the end of the best four years in our lives is an actuality. Not only have these past years been filled with the work required for a high school education, but also with the many activities which compensated for the hard work. During our years at North High we have made many new friends, carried out our duties as a class, and competed for the various positions and honors; all of which have made us very capable of meeting any problems that life may hold in store. Because North High has assisted us to achieve this, it will remain in the hearts and the minds of every member of our class.

After the first couple of months as freshmen who were still occasionally getting lost, we held our first class meeting at which we chose our officers. Greg Norton was our new President, Judy Brennan our Vice President, Jim Howard our Treasurer, and Rose Mary Mathurin our Secretary.

Our Freshman Cake Sale, the only event of which we had charge, proved very successful and started the class off well financially.

We eagerly entered our sophomore year feeling proud to give wrong directions to the baffled freshmen. It wasn't long before we chose our new leaders to guide us: Bill Clark, President; Judy Brennan, Vice President; Stuart Robinson, Treasurer; Linda Desmarais, Secretary.

Most of us became interested in extra-curricula activities and sports at this time. The two main events of the year were the St. Patrick's Dance, "Driftin' Over Dublin", and the faculty-student basketball game.

Both the school year and vacation passed very quickly and we were then upper-classmen. We chose for officers, Walter St. Lawrence as President, Judy Brennan as Vice President, Stuart Robinson as Treasurer, and Linda Desmarais as Secretary.

Not until we received our class rings, put on a very successful variety show, "North Side Story", and the Sadie Hawkins Dance, "A Girl's Night Out", did we really feel like Juniors.

The event most looked forward to was our Junior Prom, "Jardin Des Fleurs", at which Carol Sweet was crowned Queen. Attending Carol were Nancy Swaine, Linda Austin, Dale Walden, Rose Mary Mathurin, Kathy Connelly, Donna Paton, Derry Cinq-Mars, and Beth Fenton.

Last September we entered North High as the leaders, for the senior year had begun. We elected our new officers almost immediately. Tom Lynch is our President, Judy Brennan our Vice President, Stuart Robinson our Treasurer, and Linda Desmarais our Secretary. These fellow students have guided us successfully through our senior year to now, the start of graduation week.

Our athletic seniors kept up the glory of North High in Bristol County. Tom Whidden and Dave Robertson piloted our football team, Frank Wojciechowski the basketball team, Steve Metz the track team, and Grant Forbes the baseball team.

Accompanying our teams onto victory were Pam McCarthy as head cheerleader and Sue MacKay as head majorette. The senior cheerleaders were Nancy Swaine, Jo-anne Galvin, Derry Cinq-Mars, and Rose Mary Mathurin. Senior majorettes were Robin Fournier, Kathy Connelly, and Donna Grant.

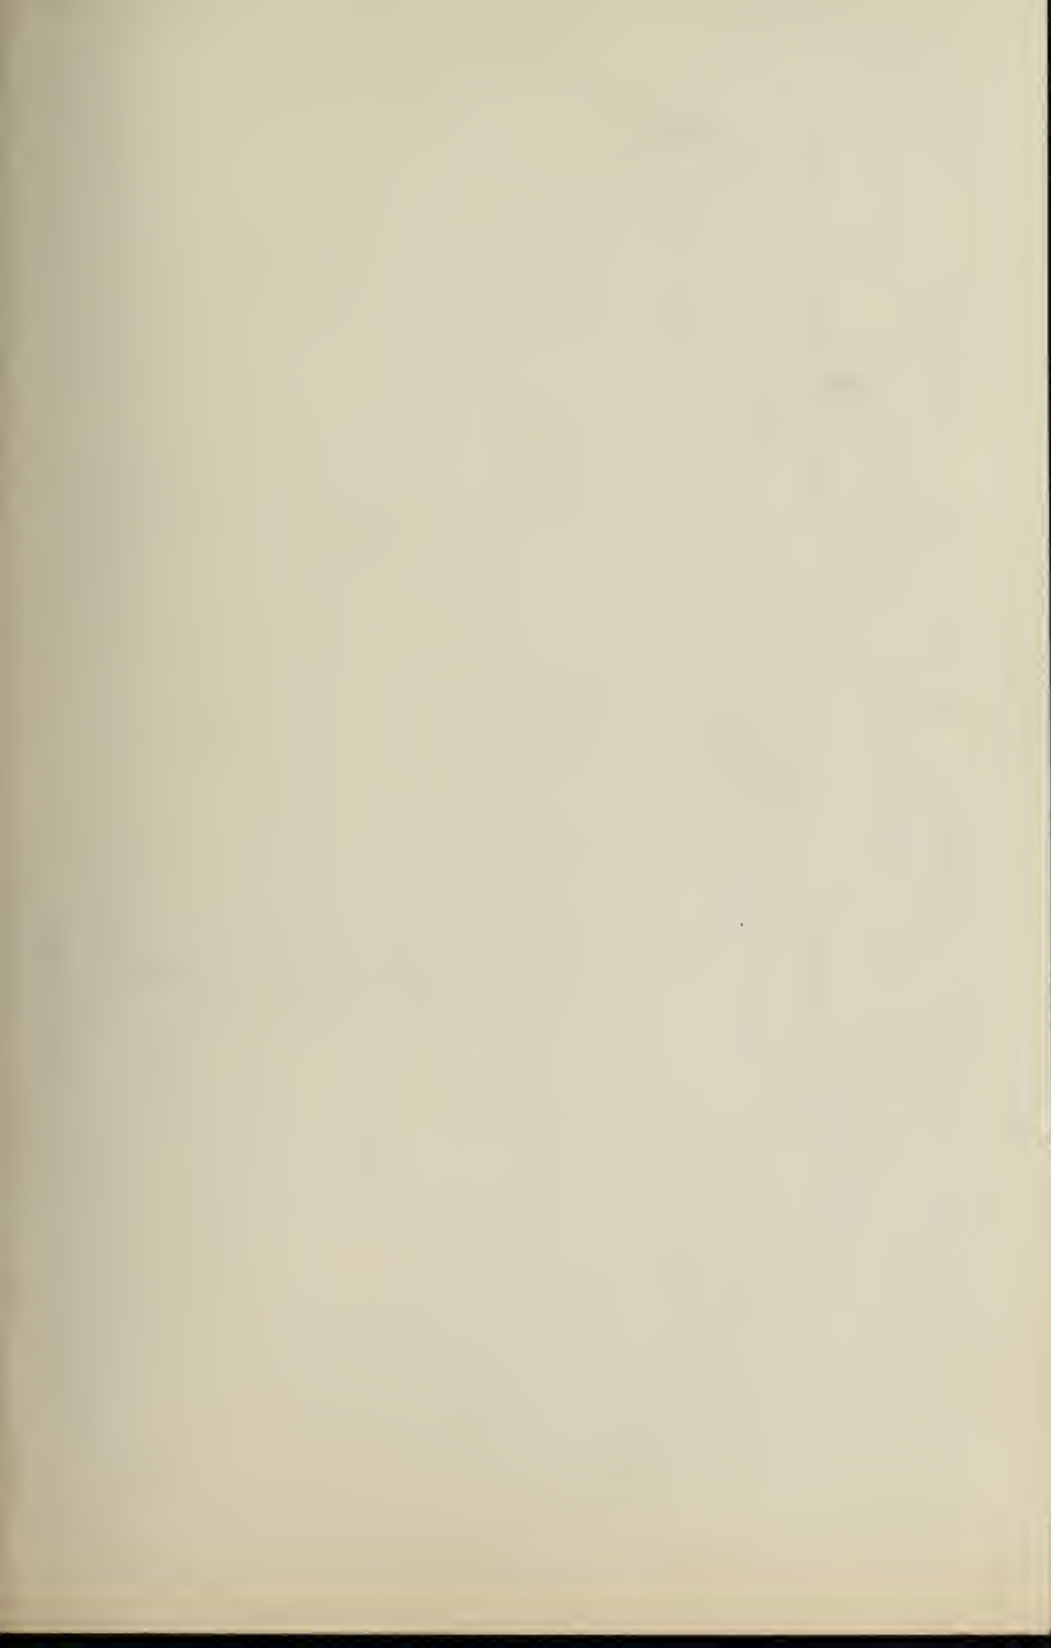

Claire Costigan and Tom Lynch, the stars of our Senior Play, "Don't Take My Penny", did an excellent job as did the entire cast.

Mary Coogan and Steve Metz did an admirable job as co-editors of the Red Cap which was eagerly waited for each month.

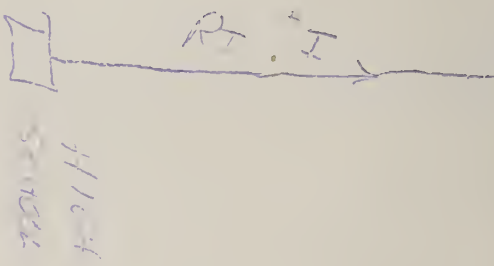

Through the combined efforts of Diane Bellavance and Jim Howard, the Northern Light is a great success.

Our Senior Prom, "Blue Velvet", at which Kathy Connelly reigned as Queen, was held at the Alpine Country Club in Cranston, Rhode Island, and was enjoyed by everyone. In the Queen's court were Beth Fenton, Donna Paton, Jeannine Ouimet, Derry Cinq-Mars, Jo-anne Galvin, Rose Mary Mathurin, Dale Walden, Linda Austin, and Nancy Swaine.

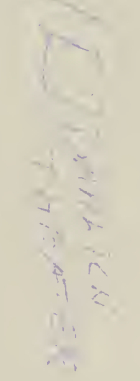

The many enjoyments as well as the few inevitable disappointments of our four years at NAHS will remain in the thoughts of our entire graduating class.

ANGLE TREE STONE

The Angle Tree Stone, erected in the latter part of the seventeenth century, is located off Upper High Street. It marks the boundary of the Plymouth Bay Colony on the southeast, Providence Plantation on the southwest, and Massachusetts Bay Colony on the north. The stone was erected as a result of a survey by John Woodcock, one of North Attleboro's earliest residents.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT

"This beautiful monument to the memory of the men who served in the Civil War was designed by Theodore Kitson Ruggles and was cast in bronze by the Gorham Company of Providence. It stands on the common where in 1861, Company 1, 7th Massachusetts Volunteers, drilled and made ready for the threatening war. Directly behind the monument stands the Baptist Church where the company attended divine worship and listened to an address by their preacher-captain, Reverend J. F. Ashley, the day they marched away to Camp Colony at the Taunton fair ground."*

UNDERCLASS CANDIDS

ACTIVITIES

HONOR SOCIETY

First row: S. MacKay, J. Narkiewicz, D. Grant, K. Nelson, K. Roach, S. Shaw, J. Schriever, C. Woloshyn. Second row: J. Howard, L. Benoit, D. Bellavance, W. Clark, J. Brennan, A. Sliz, P. MacDuff, G. Kapolchok.

The main aim of the Honor Society is both to live up to its themes of character, scholarship, leadership, and service and to stimulate all to adopt and follow these themes. In recognition of these qualities, the Honor Society, under the guidance of Mrs. Lydia Snyder, presents an induction assembly to honor newly elected members. The Society provides the student handbook for the incoming freshmen, in addition to ushering at school functions and performing other services. Financially, its activities have included a dance, Peanuts' Party, and the operation of a soda counter at many school activities.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council's principal function is to act as a liaison between students and administration. It is a democratic organization made up of home-room representatives, elected officials, and our faculty advisor, Mr. Joy.

A few of the Council's important accomplishments this year include the setting up of a weekly school news column and the establishment of an assembly program.

Beverly Anderson, Treasurer; Lorna Grimaldi, Secretary; George Kapolchok, President; Linda Austin, Vice-President; John Robitaille, Sergeant-at-Arms.

RED CAP

First row: C. Costigan, J. Ouimet, A. DeMeo, B. Pike. Second row: D. Breault, D. Paton, K. Connelly, J. Brennan, S. Guise, D. Walden, D. White, L. Abel, R. St. Martin. Third row: J. Clarner, B. Fish, K. Leary, C. Caldwell, B. Anderson, J. Richards, N. West, C. Gallepeau, P. Ostlund. Fourth row: R. Claupin, J. Wood, R. Arena, S. Smith, D. McNamara, R. Smith, G. Kapolchok.

Editors: MARY COOGAN and STEVE METZ

This year's Red Cap has sought to provide for the student body an outline of school news, fashion trends, and current sports events.

Because it also encourages articles from students other than its own staff, this publication is representative of the opinions and talents not only of a selected few but of all interested students.

Mr. William L. Kelly, Red Cap faculty advisor, has given much time and effort in making this newspaper a success.

Mr. James D. Howard, Co-Editor
1964 NORTHERN LIGHT
51 Sutherland Road
North Attleboro, Massachusetts

Dear Mr. Howard and Students of North Attleboro High School:

The death of President John F. Kennedy has stunned the world.

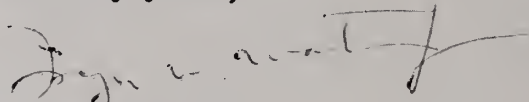

It was a shocking reminder of the high price men pay for devoted public service, of the uncertainties of life, of the dangers of pettiness and violence in a world struggle for greatness and for peace.

But the people of our nation are like a mighty army. We must advance in a wave of progress, and when leaders fall, our younger generations must produce new leaders to take their place. Our country and our ideals must live with new vitality, generation after generation.

Out of North Attleboro High School, and your graduating class, some of these new leaders must emerge. I hope that all of you will soon be good citizens of voting age, ready to participate in the continuing task of making our nation strong and great.

Congratulations and best wishes for your future success.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph W. Martin, Jr.
Congressman

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
1917-1963

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We wish to express our gratitude to Mr. Brassard, our hard-working yearbook advisor, and the yearbook staffs and editors; to the Loring Studios and to the photographers, who made our yearbook possible, and to Mr. Rowan of the Taylor Publishing Company; especially to Congressman Joseph W. Martin, Jr., for the fine portrait of Mr. Kennedy, and for his timely words; to Mr. Clark, Mr. Regan, and the faculty and administration for their cooperation; to the people of North Attleboro and to the undergraduates who so generously supported us.
